Independent design focused group, Portland Fashion Synergy to launch design contest June 10, 2009 for the re-design of its logo and website through 99designs.com; combined prize of $1000 to the winning designs.

Portland Fashion Synergy is a local, non-profit association committed to growing the fashion industry in the greater northwest by strengthening relationships between professionals involved in design, retail and manufacturing communities. The mission is to cultivate professional growth through mentorship, apprenticeships, scholarships and community outreach.

The winning logo design will receive a cash prize of $300 as well as recognition for excellence. Design of logo can be submitted through 99designs.com where progress throughout the competition will be tracked. The contest begins June 10th; submissions will be accepted through June 20th at 11:39am, when the winner will be chosen. Portland Fashion Synergy will be launching a second design contest to re-design their website incorporating the new logo. The website design contest will be announced pending the selection of the logo design. The winners of both contests will be awarded at the October launch party hosted by Portland Fashion Synergy.

Students and professionals are encouraged to participate. "This is a great opportunity to connect individuals in the fashion industries and other creative industries", says May Tee, local fashion designer and founder of Portland Fashion Synergy.
